RANDY NEWBERG, PAUL BUNYAN LUMBERJACK SHOW, KIDS TROUT POND, ADDICTED FISHING, HEAD & HORNS COMPETITION HIGHLIGHT 2023 WASHINGTON SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

PUYALLUP, WA – Washington State's largest Sportsmen's Show, The Washington Sportsmen's Show presented by Leupold, returns to the Washington State Fair Events Center in Puyallup, Washington, February 1-5, 2023. This show attracts hundreds of hunting, fishing and outdoor equipment-related companies, along with celebrities like public lands advocate and hunter Randy Newberg who will be hosting daily Q&A sessions. There's also world-class features like the Paul Bunyan Lumberjack Show, Toyota's Fistful of Cheaters, the Garmin Tech Center, survival expert Brett Stoffel, the Head & Horns Competition and a special evening event with Addicted Fishing on Saturday night along with dozens of new exhibitors and an entirely new seminar series.

What: The Washington Sportsmen's Show is a celebration of hunting, fishing and outdoor recreation. Don't miss the popular Paul Bunyan Lumberjack Show! There's log-rolling, axe throwing, chainsaw rewing, tree-splitting fun for the whole family at this show. Meet public lands advocate and hunter Randy Newberg. Take the kids to the trout pond for their turn to catch a trout... free with admission into the show. Attend the Garmin Tech Center and learn how to get the most out of your electronics. Addicted Fishing's hosting their popular "BASH" that brings the entire Addicted crew along with LOTS of giveaways and fun on Saturday night. For complete details visit: thesportshows.com.
