

72 REASONS TO ATTEND THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST SPORTSMEN'S SHOW

PORTLAND, OR – Big is back! The Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show aka "The Big One", enters its 48th year as the largest sport show west of the Mississippi, and largest consumer show in the northwest. It's big! Celebrate everything outdoors and join us for 5 days of the biggest and best in outdoor recreation at the Portland Expo Center, February 15-19, 2023. This is by no means a complete list but here are a few very good reasons to spend your time at this year's show...enjoy!

- 1. Leupold. As the world's preeminent hunting and outdoor optics manufacturer. We're grateful for their support as the presenting sponsor of the Sportsmen's Show series and in this case, the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. Be sure to stop by their booth for a rundown on what's new and any questions you may have on any of their scopes, binoculars or range finders. Leupold is also offering show-only specials as well as stocking some hard-to-find products not commonly found at retailers.
- 2. Randy Newberg. Celebrated hunter and public lands and public access advocate, Randy Newberg, returns to the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. We're thrilled! He'll be at the show and delivering a daily Q&A session on all-things-hunting and public lands access. This is a special opportunity for local hunters to connect with one of the world's best. We love Randy! He's accessible, easy-to-talk-to and helpful!
- 3. Kids Free Trout Pond! After a two-year hiatus the Kids Free Trout Pond is back! Kids 12 and younger can take their turn at this uber-popular stop at the show. All the gear's provided --- even a plastic bag to take them home --- and again, it's all free with your admission into the show! Special thanks to Multnomah Anglers and Hunters for staffing the pond and helping families enjoy this remarkable experience. The Kids Free Trout Pond is an iconic feature that's become a generational experience as grandparents who caught their first trout are now bringing their grandkids to catch their first fish! Please join us in celebrating the return of this fun feature and the memories it's sure to fire.
- 4. Evening Events. Three huge events this year! Seating for all three is limited. Addicted Fishing brings their Mega-BASH to the Portland Expo Center Thursday night. This is a ticketed event. Born and Raised Outdoors debuts their new movie, "Brotherhood" on Friday night. And Leupold's VIP Movie Night is slated for Saturday and gets going at 7PM. This is also a ticketed event with proceeds going to benefit the Oregon Hunters Association.
- 5. Fishing Kayak Sale! The largest fishing kayak sale west of the Mississippi is happening at this year's show! If you've been thinking about a fishing kayak, or are in the market, this is the place to be! You'll find Old Town, Hobie, Jackson, NRS and Native factory booths at the show along with show specials galore! Don't miss this!
- 6. Fistful of Cheaters. Everyone wins with Toyota's Fistful of Cheaters! It's easy and it's free! Just go to the Toyota booth, sign-up and get in line. Take your turn at the tank filled with Beau Mac Cheaters and whatever you're able to scoop up you take home with you. And, if one of the Cheaters you grab happens to have a Toyota logo on it, you win an additional prize! The prizes are pretty awesome too! Full camp kitchen set-ups, Edge Rods, stoves, headlamps, crab rings, folding utensils, sunglasses, fillet knives, dry bags, hammocks and much more!
- 7. KastKing Promotion! It's the biggest fishing line promotion we've ever seen and it's at the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show! Just like the show...it's BIG! KastKing and their retail partner, Sportsman's Warehouse, are introducing their new braided fishing line, Hammer Braid at the show. Bring your empty reel, or even better buy one at the show and bring it to the booth, and they'll give you a spool of Hammer Braid for free! All they ask is that you bring your reel and make a $5 donation to the Northwest Sportfishing Industry Association right there in their booth and they'll give you either a spool of 20lb., 50lb. or 80lb. Hammer Braid. The 80lb. spool is 300 yards. That's it! That's as much as a $30 value!

- 8. The Kayak Fishing Pond sponsored by Old Town. This all-new 30'x60' indoor pond is the only place in the west you'll find tournament-groomed kayak anglers delivering seminars in their kayaks all-day-long on this little manmade pond. Fishing from kayaks is on a huge upswing in popularity in the NW. You'll find the Kayak Fishing Pond in "C" Hall.
- 9. Camp Eureka! We've been counting the days to introduce this exciting new feature. It's three fully-equipped Eureka! camp set-ups. One for backpacking, one for overland and the third for family/car camping. The best part --- you can purchase these camp set-ups at the show, in-part or in-whole! Get a jump on spring and summer camping! Johnson Outdoors is offering "purchasing gifts" when you buy at the show. Go check it out for details!
- 10. $100 from Next Adventure! And when you're at Camp Eureka! have some fun and snap a pic of you and others having fun and post it to Instagram with the hashtag #campeureka!...with that you're entered into a drawing for a $100 Next Adventure gift card.
- 11. Wall of Kings. The Wall of Kings is one of the most impressive trophy displays to be found anywhere on the planet! It's a collection of big game mounts that will amaze any deer or elk hunter. It's truly a collection of some incredibly impressive and beautiful animals. And appropriately, you'll find it close to the Head & Horns Competition in "E" Hall.
- 12. Brett Stoffel. Survival expert Brett Stoffel, sponsored by your local Toyota Dealers, is conducting daily seminars and he's also at the Toyota booth the entire show. His expertise has saved the lives of those that have attended his seminars. Learn to make fire under the most difficult conditions. Learn survival basics and what you should always have with you or in your vehicle anytime you venture into the backcountry.
- 13. Bi-Mart Ammo Sale! It's back and it's bigger and better than ever! Stock-up at the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. There's too many different calibers to list but if you're looking you should be covered at this sale. We're told this is the largest inventory of ammo in the Northwest right now.
- 14. Garmin Tech Center. Whether you're a seasoned mariner or a new-boater the Garmin Tech Center is a must-stop to polish your skills and learn the fundamentals of operating your fish finder. From the basics to advanced applications, the Garmin Tech Center is hosting several seminars a day that will help you get the most out of your fishing electronics. It's free with admission into the show and you'll learn from the experts. Seminar topics and times are on the show's website at TheSportShows.com.
- 15. Plan your vacation. This show is the ideal opportunity to plan your 2023 or 2024 adventure. As we like to say, "Great adventures far and near start here." From close-by guide trips for a variety of fish and wildlife species to more ambitious trips out of state or country, you'll find lots of options to consider at the show!
- 16. Warm and dry. The perfect combination when the weather takes a turn and you're either on-the-water or back in the thick of it hunting. We have some fabulous outdoor apparel companies in this year's show. Check them all out. . .it's a very impressive line-up that includes: Bow and Rod, First Lite, Ghost Bull Hunting, Gill Fishing, Grunden's, Kakadu Traders and Verdict Gear.
- 17. Buy some art. Nothing says, "I love the outdoors" quite like a painting, metal art, sculptures, photography or some other form of art from one of our many artistically inclined exhibitors. Some of this year's noteworthy exhibitors displaying their artwork include: Back Country Cutouts, Bartholet Wildlife Gallery, Blue Duck Woodworking, Cascade Custom Creations, Creative Ironworks, Imaginations of the Wild, Northwest Expressions, Pudding River Wood Carving Studio, Steel and Stone, Studio Abachar, The Rockpile Lapidary Arts and the Wet Nose.
- 18. Addicted Fishing. One of the more popular stops at the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show, you'll find fish bonkers, nets, hats, stickers and apparel galore! The whole Addicted Crew along with plenty of their friends will be selling their latest merchandise, tackle and guide trips. They're also presenting at several seminars and of course, this year, they're hosting their Mega-BASH.
- 19. Shop the sales. There are literally thousands of items on sale at this year's show. . .deeply discounted sale items! Boats, clothes, tackle, camping and cooking equipment, knives, rods and reels, RV's, ATV's, food items, jewelry, art and much, much more! One of the great benefits of this show is all the shopping you can do in one place. Not only will you enjoy big savings on all kinds of products, but you can look into everything from storage buildings, recreational properties, guide trips, hunts, taxidermy and many other outdoor and outdoor-support categories and start your planning at the show. . .all in one place!
- 20. Born and Raised. You can't miss the amazing display of merchandise and hunting products in "D" Hall in the Born and Raised display. It's a show within a show! They'll be hosting seminars and podcasts out of their booth and selling BRO branded items. Their booth is loaded with some of the most prominent names in hunting. Whether you hunt or not make BRO a stop to see some of the biggest brands and products in outdoor recreation.
- 21. Nick's back! Maybe one of the most traveled salmon and steelhead anglers on the planet, Nick Amato will be making a rare appearance at the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show AND making his first appearance on the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen Show seminar stage in the Blue Theater. Look for him in the Amato Media/Salmon Trout Steelheader booth and be sure to catch his seminar on steelhead drift fishing.

- 22. Attend some seminars. Some of the top experts in hunting and fishing are aboard and ready to share what they know in our new and retooled seminar series for 2023. Arguably, the best fishing and hunting seminar series of its kind in the country, this year touches on a variety of highly relevant topics with the detail and insight you need to put these expert's advice into practice. This year's speakers include: Randy Newberg, Jack and Brandon Glass, Duane Inglin, Derick Fergus, Jarod Higginbotham, Randy Bonner, Steve Leonard, Cameron Black, Cody Herman, Jody Smith, Ashley Nichole Lewis, Shelby Ross, Pro Escabedo, Heather Aldrich, Shane Magnuson, Bill Herzog, Brett Stoffel, JD Richey, Richy Harrod, Marlin LaFever, Heather Aldrich, Jordan Knigge, Candy and Randy Yow, and several others.
- 23. The allure of lures. Brad's Killer Fishing Gear, Chrome Junkies, Leo Flashers, Luhr Jensen, Mack's Lures, Madame Lure, McOmie's Custom Lures, Poulson Cascade, Pradco, Pro Troll, Rapala, VIP Outdoors, Western Fishing Operations and others are there to answer your questions, show you what's new and make sure you're getting the most out of the gear you're using. These are the pro's pro's and fishing is their life. Make a point of stopping by their booth to get the scoop on all things fishing and fishing tackle.
- 24. A mountain of sausages... from Hill Meat Co. We're proud to feature Hill Meat Co., as the purveyor of our hot dogs and sausages. They're an Oregon company and we're excited to have them back to the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. Nothing says "Sportsmen's Show" quite like a beer and a brat!
- 25. Lots of archery! There's no shortage of archery and archery-related companies at this year's Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. From broadheads and bows to apparel and experts, you'll have several companies to shop and talk to. Be sure to stop by Archer's Afield and Archery World... you'll find everything you need at these two stops and plenty more at: Block Targets, Bow Spider, G4 Archery Outdoors, Hoyt Archery, Muzzy Broadheads, North American Hunting Competition, Rage Broadheads and Spider Archery Products. And when you're done shopping archery products be sure to stop by Sylvan Archers for some target practice.
- 26. Accessorize your boat. Several companies at the show can get you what you need to turn your boat into a complete fishing or hunting machine. Fisherman's Marine & Outdoor, Englund Marine, Barewest Wakeboard and Fish Towers, Fish Fighter Products, Fish On Sports, Five C's Boat Covers, Haxton's Canvas & Upholstery, Jason Parks Upholstery, Stevens Marine and others are worth a stop and shop.
- 27. Support a cause. You can be part of the solution with wonderful organizations like: Oregon Hunters Association, The Fallen Outdoors, CCA Oregon, Backcountry Hunters and Anglers, Mule Deer Foundation and The Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation. They're all here (along with others) and worthy of your attention and support as they work to build a better future for hunters and anglers.
- 28. Razor sharp. You'll gain a razor sharp edge with The Hunter Honer by America Delta Products and Work Sharp --- they make good knives, great. Swing by for a firsthand demonstration.
- 29. Hunting accessories. What makes a "sportsmen's show a sportsmen's show"? Hunting AND fishing equipment. And this show has plenty of both including LOTS of hunting accessories and companies that specialize in hunting and gun accessories of all descriptions.
- 30. Forged Elegance. Words can't do justice to the incredible furniture and work of Forged Elegance. They're from Central Oregon and their furniture is in a class all by itself. It's safe to say they're a perfect fit for the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. Barn and reclaimed wood matched to forged steel in designs that are bold and singularly unique. Seeing is believing and believe us... when you see it you'll love it.
- 31. Cutting edge technology. There's no shortage of premium knives at this year's show. Coast, Cobra Tee Knives, Cutco Cutlery, Goddard Knife Works, Mode One Knives, Montana Knife Company, Texan Knives and Rockin' H Cutlery are some of the many represented. We never know what our retailers will be bringing but it's worth a look to see what they have.
- 32. Float boats. Or more accurately, "non-motorized" boats. Next Adventure, Native, NRS, Old Town, Jackson Kayaks, Pavati, Kennedy Outdoors and RB Boats are all at the show with the very best in non-motorized boats and accessories.
- 33. Join a club. Whether you're looking to get started, network with like-minded enthusiasts or just honing your already proficient skills, there are dozens of clubs at the show that can help. From dogs and dog training to fishing and hunting, if you make the rounds, peruse the show guide and spend some time poking around, you're bound to find just what you're looking for.
- 34. To build a shelter. Looking for a storage shed, or maybe something a bit more ambitious like a storage building? Then you'll definitely want to stop by Tuff Shed or Web Steel Buildings. These companies do some really impressive work and have deep portfolios they can share while you plan.
- 35. Find Fish. Electronics have become essential equipment for serious anglers everywhere. You'll find all the major brands represented between the various retailers at the show including: Portland Marine Electronics, Englund Marine and Fisherman's Marine & Outdoor. We have anglers that travel from distant states just to purchase their electronics at the show. And don't miss the manufacturers like Garmin, Lowrance and Humminbird who will all have displays at the show manned by experts.

- 36. E-Bikes. UBCO! These are an exhilarating and effective new twist on bicycling with electric power that's clean, quiet and powerful. Imagine running up the trails of your favorite river, biking into distant lakes or exploring the backcountry...you can with these! And, if you're a drift boater looking to get to your rig you won't have to wait for a shuttle with one of these in the back of your drift boat. Hunters and RVers have found a place for these too. Check them out. They're heavy duty and built-to-last.
- 37. Head & Horns above the rest. Want to be impressed? Even if you don't hunt you have to check these bodacious trophies out, they're well worth seeing. If you do hunt you'll be blown away by the size of some of the mounts. And if you have a set of horns, antlers or a head that you'd like measured and scored this is the place to bring it. We have folks certified to measure and score your trophy and if it's a winner the prizes are incredible! It's $10 to have your trophy measured and $30 if you want to enter the competition. Special thanks to Leupold, Fort Knox, RMEF, Gerber, Danner/LaCrosse, Rage, Muzzy, Savage and Block Targets as the sponsors of this popular show feature.
- 38. Shoot an arrow. Sylvan Archers returns with their onsite shooting range. Bring the kids and teach them or take a turn of your own. It's fun and a great place to get started.
- 39. Stay informed. Don't miss the Amato Media, Northwest Sportsmen Magazine, American Outdoors Radio and Northwestern Outdoors Radio, Addicted Fishing, Fish Hunt Northwest, Outdoor Sportsman Group and Born and Raised Outdoors booths! There's plenty of outdoor media at this year's show.
- 40. Pudding River. What's this you ask? It's the genius of Jim Barton and his wood carving studio. We're so pleased to have Jim at this year's show. His work is amazing from carved panels you can use anyway you please to end tables, dining sets and coffee tables that are frankly incredible. Pudding River Wood Carving Studio is in the house and Jim will be carving away every day amidst his collection of stunning artwork.
- 41. Safe haven. All the major gun safe companies are at the show. Trusted names like Fort Knox, Northwest Safe Sales and Tracker Safes are all there and on sale.
- 42. Go to Africa. That's right Africa! These companies have traveled halfway around the world to meet you. You can book your dream safaris and/or hunts right at the show through several longtime, reliable and productive operations. If you're shopping, thinking about it or just wondering what a trip like this runs, this is the perfect place to find out and get your plans started or cemented. Get a copy of the show guide and you'll know who they are and where they're located.
- 43. Get dressed up. Or dressed down, depending on how you look at things. There's lots and lots of apparel for sale, far too much to list. Deep discounts, hard-to-find items and specialty gear you've been looking for...it's here.
- 44. Get backcountry. There's lots of ways to access the backcountry and ATV's are one of them. There are ATV's-a-plenty at the show. Just take a seat on one and you'll know you're in for an adventure.
- 45. Alaska fishing. Are you ready for that much-awaited trip-of-a-lifetime? Some of Alaska's top fishing destinations and operations make the trip to Portland to talk fishing at the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. Book a trip for this year or start your planning for 2024. From Trophy trout, salmon and steelhead to halibut and northern pike, some of the world's best fishing and scenery is waiting to be experienced and this show is a great place to get it started.
- 46. Serious pulling and off-road power. Whether you're towing a boat, pitching a tent on top of your vehicle or need real muscle for that fifth wheel, you'll find the experts that know and the vehicles that can do it at the show. You'll find plenty of towing and pulling power in the Toyota booth and also at Northside Ford and Westin GMC.
- 47. Shake a rod. You'll find several rod manufacturers, as well as a number of custom builders at the show. If you're in the market for a rod this is THE SHOW to attend. There are plenty more rods to check out at the retail booths too. You'll find the season's best prices, selection and expertise all in one place.
- 48. What's your line? There's plenty of fishing line to buy at the show but more importantly the MANUFACTURERS are all here too! We defy you to find another show anywhere with better fishing line representation than you'll find at the Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show.
- 49. Boat tops and more! No one can deny that you'll enjoy your day out boating a little more if you're out of the weather and under the comfort of a top. Five C's Boat Covers, Haxton's Canvas & Upholstery and Jason Parks Upholstery are in the house and will talk tops all day long!
- 50. The call of the wild. If you've spent any time at all around the sportsmen's show then you've heard the chorus of calls in some of the halls. It's one of our trademark identifiers. Elk calls, duck calls, scents and attractants for fish and game...they're not hard to find if you listen. Thankfully, you'll have to look for the scents...we keep those bottled up.
- 51. Find a gun. Gun manufacturers and custom gunsmiths, they're at the show, in fact, more than we've had in some time! From shotguns to rifles of all sizes and descriptions. Talk to the manufacturers and pros to see what's new and get the most out of what you have. Check out: Curt's Custom Guns, G4 Outdoors, Northwest Armory, Seekins Precision, Sportsman's Warehouse and Sig Sauer...to name a few.

- 52. Get Hooked! Some very popular hook manufacturers are at the show and looking forward to meeting you. How about Gamakatsu, Mustad, Owner and VMC for starters? Get the low down on the best hooks for the application and new ideas on old techniques.
- 53. Get Propped Up. Looking to buy a prop or have one fixed? Ampro and Sheffield Propeller are both longtime exhibitors and reliable resources when it comes to boat propellers. Get the most out of your boat...propping your boat properly is a good place to start.
- 54. RV's for sale! We got 'em! Plenty! Overlanding too! Plenty! Apache Camping, Funtime RV, Mule Expeditions and Elusive Trailers are all in and a perfect fit for serious outdoors-folk.
- 55. Looking for land? If you're in the market for some acreage, a ranch, farmland or fishing and hunting property be sure to talk to our friends at Land and Wildlife and Whitetail Properties. You have questions and dreams, they have answers and choices.
- 56. Boat towers. Barewest and Fish On Sports will both be at this year's show with their line-up of fishing and wakeboard towers and much more! Radar arches, custom fabrication, T-tops and storage solutions --- between these two you'll find exactly what you're after.
- 57. Maps. You'll never be lost when you take Big Sky Maps and Rugged Maps into the field. Maps for most states, nautical maps, national parks and wilderness areas. If you venture into the backcountry a GPS is essential equipment but it's always a good idea to have back-up. And when it comes to pre-planning, spreading a map out and getting the lay of the land is time well-spent.
- 58. Truck Accessories. Looking to upgrade your truck for serious off-road use? If so, you'll want to stop by All American Truck & SUV Accessory Center and Mule Expeditions Outfitters.
- 59. Food. There are over 20 food companies at the show. Jerky, nuts, olive oil, beverages, wild game and sauces are some of the many categories waiting to be purchased. With over 300,000 square feet of display space at the show throwing in a few food companies, especially ones suited to outdoor enthusiasts, is always in good taste.
- 60. A place to call home. Bravo Mfg., Davis Tents and The Wall Tent Shop will be showing their respective brands of wall tents. These tent-makers, produce serious outdoor domiciles for equally serious hunters and outdoor enthusiasts looking to construct a sturdy, all-weather base camp. They'll have tents on display and for sale at the show.
- 61. Home is where the hunt is. Oregon plays host to some exceptional hunting opportunity. From upland game birds, elk, deer and exotics you'll find some great choices at this year's show and close to home! Ellis Hunting Range, Four Aces Ranch, Hustler Hunting, Jody Smith Guide Service and Steens Wilderness Adventures will take you to the game you're pursuing. Start your hunt at the show!
- 62. Oregon fishing. No matter your skill level, it's always a nice treat to have someone else do the work for a day. All you have to do is show-up with your license and leave the prep work and driving to someone else. Especially, when that "someone else" happens to be one of the top fishing guides in the region. You can't miss with these great choices. Steve Leonard, of Steve's Guided Adventures, Jack and Brandon Glass of Team Hook-Up, Day One Outdoors (Cody Herman), Cameron Black (Gone Catchin'), Twisted Waters Guide Service, Peel The Reel Guide Service, Fin Reaper Guide Service, Valley Coast Outdoors, VIP Outdoors and Jody Smith are all leading names in Oregon fishing and you'll enjoy a wonderful day of fishing and fun with any one of them. They'll all be booking trips at the show. Bring your calendar and plan a day-off for yourself.
- 63. Charter some fun! Pacific Fin Charters (Westport, WA), Garibaldi Charters, Pacific Pond Charters, Pacific Salmon Charters (Illwaco, WA), Outlander Charters, Salty Dog Charters, Tradewind Charters (Depoe Bay, OR), Ocean Sportfishing Charters and Windsong Charters (Neah Bay, WA) will both be booking trips for spring, summer and fall. Recent forecasts point to some pretty hot offshore fishing for salmon, halibut, bottom fish, tuna and sturgeon. Book early for what should be a blistering summer of fishing fun!
- 64. Make fire. Woodsman Fire Starters, Quick Fire, Fire Lyte and Brett Stoffel are all good stops and there's plenty more for making fire without a match.
- 65. Gold Diggers Wanted! The NW Mineral Prospectors will have your kids panning for gold just like the pros on Gold Rush! We're thrilled to have them back and so will lots of kids. But wait there's more ---- we also have Portland Prospectors, Inc. and Prospectors Treasure Trove at the show --- so if it's gold you seek, this is a good place to start your search.
- 66. Out-of-state hunts. Lots of options at this year's Pacific Northwest Sportsmen's Show. Alaska, Idaho, Montana and Utah are all represented. There may be others too, hunting them down is half the fun!
- 67. New Zealand. Arguably one of the most beautiful and productive hunting and fishing destinations on the planet. Interested in going? Be sure to talk to Kaweka Hunting Adventures (they also provide exceptional fishing adventures too) and Gary Herbert's New Zealand Hunting.
- 68. We've got the boat brands. From heavy gauge welded aluminum and lighter gauge riveted and welded aluminum to inflatables and fiberglass, the names you know will be at this year's boat show. Boats have been in short supply but you'll find plenty here.

- 69. Jody Smith. Not only is Jody one of Oregon's busiest guides, he's also one of our seminar speakers. Here's your chance to book early and not miss an opportunity to fish or hunt the picturesque and storied Umpqua area. Jody truly does it all... salmon, steelhead, shad, smallmouth bass, surf perch, sturgeon, elk, deer and turkey --- and he's considered one of the West's top talents for all of them. Any one of these is a bucket-list trip...he'll be at the show all five days --- bring your calendar and book a trip.
- 70. What are the optics? Leupold, Osprey, Tract Optics, Maven, Novagrade, Quigley Ford, Swarovski Optik North America, Vortex and Zeiss are all must-stop booths if you're interested in optics like scopes, spotting scopes and binoculars. They'll bring your hunting into focus.
- 71. Packs. In the market for a pack? Especially if you're looking for the perfect pack for hunting, this is the place you'll find it. Here's a few great companies (maybe more) that will have packs for sale at the show. Rockagator, Nimrod Outdoor Co., Hunt Hard Gear and Wilderness Pack Specialties are all here. These folks will help you carry the load...comfortably.
- 72. Spirits. Nothing like a sportsmen's show to showcase new and innovative adult beverages. There's a few, but just like the spirits, in moderation of course --- we have just enough distillers to keep it interesting and fun.
